"This is no ordinary Pot Pie"

With a variety of travel experiences behind us, we found that each of us have enjoyed different styles of the classic "Pot Pie". You can only imagine our frustration, when we returned to California and were unable to find anything comparable. With the help of our chef, we have created our own versions of this simple yet delightful meal. Z Pie is proud to introduce a selection of gourmet pot pies we know you will enjoy.

Did you know you can
